Surgeons share video of life-changing surgery to open blocked coronary artery A mother and daughter won't be able to watch each other's next birth. After the 35-year-old Nevada mother died of a heart attack in her sleep, an autopsy revealed she'd suffered from a congenital heart condition called patent ductus arteriosus, or PDA. Her six-year-old daughter had a similar condition. AmberRice, a pediatric cardiologist, says it's a heart problem that happens when the ductus, a long vessel that opens into the lungs, isn't closed after birth. But it wasn't until after mom passed away that doctors realized she had the condition. "Because she was in excellent health, she had no symptoms, no symptoms of d41b202975

Report on Social Media Advertising: How African-Americans Dominate Social Media Advertisin A DAVINCO study found: "Black people have a higher level of representation and activity on social media than any other racial group, making up 67% of Facebook users overall, and 85% of Twitter users." A DAVINCO study found: "Black people have a higher level of representation and activity on social media than any other racial group, making up 67% of Facebook users overall, and 85% of Twitter users." According to the presentation, black Facebook users are fully 86% of Facebook's user base — although they make up only 13% of Facebook's overall population. The study found: "The average black Facebook user spends 5.4 hours per week on the network and posts 5.6 photos a week, compared to the network average of 3.3 hours and 1.6 photos/week." "Black people make up 13% of the population, but account for the largest number of users of many of the major social networks. However, when it comes to posting frequent photos, just over 14% of black users and more than 20% of Hispanic users use at least one platform for the majority of their shares. Even among this group, most use Facebook rather than Instagram on a weekly basis." The presentation further noted: "Black people account for 85% of Twitter users and 79% of people who follow at least one NFL team on Twitter." African-Americans make up 13% of the United States' population. Twelve percent of the United States' population is Hispanic, making up 16% of the total population. One out of every five Americans is Caucasian, making up 63% of the total population. Caucasians are predominant on social media networks like Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram — although there are exceptions, such as black Facebook users. According to DAVINCO, not all social media users are created equally. Black people use social media to communicate with family, friends, and colleagues on a daily basis. Black people use social media for personal purposes, such as posting pictures of themselves and their family and friends. According to DAVINCO's study: Black people were more active on all of the networks in March 2014 — with Facebook users twice

Thanks to 3ppk and SmartWIP. A: You can use 3PPK to do just that. Click this URL to download 3PPK: and then let 3ppk run normally. For security reasons, 3PPK works in a sandbox like JavaScript sandbox. It also blocks certain types of scripts, due to which some users might experience issues (such as page freezing or slow loading) when they are using 3PPK. However, as you're reading this tutorial, you've most probably already experienced those issues. If you do, you might want to consider disabling 3PPK. Just go to Settings > Containers and disable the Sandbox option. Q: Number of different palindromes Say you write 3 different palindromes a,b,c. Assuming length 2. Is it
